ACCUSES OFFICIALS OF CONSPIRACY

Riggs National Bank Would Restrain McAdoo and Williams.

PRESENT STATEMENTS

Comptroller Accusers Bank's Officers of Serious Irregularities and Unlawful Practices.

Washington, April 13—The long-standing feud between Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Comptroller of the Currency John Skelton Williams, on the one hand, and the Riggs National Bank of Washington, the local correspondent for the National City Bank of New York, on the other, came to a head yesterday, when the bank asked for an injunction restraining the official from further "persecution" of the complainant.

The suit is one of the most extraordinary proceedings ever brought in a Federal court against the administration of an executive department of the Government. It is sought thereby to relieve Riggs bank from "undue and unwarranted" interference on the part of the Treasury in the affairs of the bank, though it admits the right of the Comptroller under the Federal National Bank act to supervise fully the operation of the bank.

That the suit has long been planned was indicated by the careful manner in which it and the reasons for the proceedings were announced. Copies of correspondence between the bank and the Treasury, a summary of the allegations in the court bill and a statement from the officials of the bank were handed out in printed form in the office of former Senator Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, counsel for the plaintiff. Frank J. Hogan of this city, is associated with Senator Bailey in the case.

For two years the controversy between the Treasury and the officers of the Riggs National Bank has been carried on. Secretary McAdoo precipitated it when he ordered a clerk of the bank removed from the office of the Comptroller shortly after the inauguration of President Wilson. This was followed by a bitter reply. Later the interested parties clashed over the absorption of the United States Trust Company by the Munsey Trust Company, over the confirmation of Mr. Williams as Comptroller and over other incidents connected with the Treasury administration.

The bill in equity filed in the District of Columbia Supreme Court yesterday is directed at Secretary McAdoo, Comptroller Williams and Treasurer John Burke. Mr. Burke is brought into the case for techinical reasons only. Thirty seven counts are recited in the bill, alleging "unwarranted and unlawful exercise of official authority" by the three officials.

Specifically the bank alleges that the Treasury levied a fine of $5,000 against it and withheld that sum of money from the interest on Government bonds owned by the Riggs institution. Other penalties described as "excessive and ruinous" were imposed, the bill states. These penalties are all cited.

An interview between Mr. McAdoo President Charles C. Glover and Vice-President Milton E. Ailes in the Secretary's office is also referred to. At this interview Mr. McAdoo is alleged to have advanced threateningly toward Mr. Ailes and in great anger shouted, with a blasphemous oath, 'I will order you but of my office," and then turning to Mr. Glover said to him, 'Mr. Glover, you know what that means to the Riggs National Bank.'

It is also averred in the bill that in May, 1914, Mr. McAdoo eliminated the bank from its normal share of the District of Columbia tax moneys, funds which it had been accustomed, along with other national banks of Washington, to receive. The further charge is made that Mr. McAdoo and Mr. Williams "conspired" to take away from the bank Panama Canal funds amounting to $1,158,479.51. Adding these two sums it is alleged that nearly $2,500,000 was withfrom the bank "at a time when all banks in the country were making strenuous efforts to husband their resources."

It is further charged that the Red Cross funds of which Mr. Williams is the treasurer were taken from the Riggs Bank. "'which end he accomplished by requiring the bank favored with these deposts to pledge as security therefor certain assets as against the interests of their other deposftors."

Mr. Williams, against whom most of the allegations are leveled, is accused likewise of an attempt "to assert extraordinary, far reaching, unauthorized and unlawful inquisitorial and visitatorial powers" against the bank, threatening it and its officers "with unspecified punitory action." In all it is declared, only 27 letters have been received by the Riggs officials from other Comptrollers in 13 years, whereas the bank has already received 51 letters and that its correspondence with the Comptroller covers 503 pages.

"Many of his communications," it is further alleged, "have been insolent and insulting, and frequently contained maliciously false imputations against the veracity and integrity of the plaintiff's officers." In this connection, it is declared that the Comptroller has compelled all the officers to make joint oath to their communications, refusing to accept the unsupported word of any individual.

The bill filed today contains 25,000 words and reviews all the transactions between the Treasury officials and the Riggs Bank officials.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Gen. Victoriano Huerta, former provisional president of Mexico, who for nearly a year has been an exile in Spain, arrived in New York yesterday on the Spanish steamship Antonio Lopez from Cadiz. The former president said that he had come to the United States partly for pleasure and partly to attend to some personal business connected with family matters. He swore that he had no intention of going to Mexico or to Cuba.

Reports that a German squadron has been engaged by British warships off the coast of Norway, south of Bergen, were received in London yesterday from a number of Scandanavian ports. The admiralty refused comment upon them. Another report was current that heavy firing had been heard off Scarborough.

The Harrison Line steamer Wayfarer has been torpedoed by a German submarine, while off the Scilly Islands. Although considerably damaged, the crew managed to keep her afloat. She was taken in tow and reached Queenstown, where she was beached.

At the British foreign office and elsewhere it is stated that nothing is known concerning the report of peace overtures. It is stated definitely that nothing has occurred which indicates that any one is making a genuine effort for peace. Germany is held responsible for the "peace talk." It is deduced from this that Germany is beginning to realize what the inevitable end will be, and that she is endeavoring to place upon the allies the responsibility for the continuation of the war.

Cecil M. Peoli was killed at College Park, Md., yesterday when a biplane of which he was the inventor and said to be the largest ever constructed, fell 100 feet. Peoli was caught beneath the machine, his skull crushed and his body badly mangled.

Twenty-eight Italian families were thrown into a panic early yesterday when a dynamite bomb was exploded in front of the drug store of Vito Mirenda, at 814 East 12th street, New York. The store is on the first floor of a crowded tenement building. Mirenda told the police that the Black Hand had been demanding tribute from him for two years, and that he had been instrumental in sending some of the blackmailers to prison. Mirenda's store was completely wrecked.

CAPTAIN EAGER TO RETURN TO SEA

Says He is Not Thinking of Interning Cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm

REMAINS AT ANCHOR

Raider Will Not be Permitted to Enter Dry Dock Until Commander Makes Formal Statement.

Newport News, Va., April 13—The German merchant raider Kronprinz Wilhelm, under orders from the Washington government will not be permitted to go into dry dock at the ship yard here until Lieutenant- Captain Theirfelder commander of the ship, has made formal request in writing as to the repairs he wishes to make to render his vessel seaworthy and for supplies necessary to take him to the nearest home port.

Captain Thierfelder told Collector of Customs Hamilton last night that he would make his formal request as soon as possible, but that he could not do so before today. Meanwhile the seas carried commerce destroyer remains at anchor in the James River, and was examined late yesterday by experts from the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Docks company, who found the ship leaking and her boilers in bad shape. Unofficially it was learned that the vessel is in need of much tinkering before she could be made seaworthy and this was taken as an indication that the ship eventually may be forced to follow her predecessor, the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, to internment at this port for the period of the war.

The doughty German captain, however, is insistent that he must has ten to repair his ship and return upon the work commissioned him by the German government as a merchant raider on the high seas.

"I will decide upon repairs necessary to my ship as soon as it is humanly possible," Captain Thierfelder said "because it is necessary that I proceed as soon as possible'. It is of utmost importance that I resume the duties assigned to me by my government at sea."

The German commander yesterday discharged officers and men of the British ships Tamar and Colby, whom he brought to this port and they were transferred to the British horse steamer Cassandra amid the plaudits of their fellow countrymen aboard ships in the harbor. Tonight they left for England, all of them glad to be alive and wondering how they slipped through the warships of the allies off the Virginia capes. That the escape was a miraculous one was attested to by Captain Thierfelder himself in an interview on his expesience in racing to this refuge from the equator after destroying the Colby on March 27 last.

"I must proceed with my refitting as quickly as posible," the German skipper said last night. "I can fool the British again as easily as when I came in."

WOMAN GORED BY BULL.

Animal Became Enraged at Red Sweater Worn by Her.

Wilmington, Del., April 13.—Mrs. Edward R. Helms, aged 50 years, was gored probably fatally yesterday by a bull on her farm at Twin Oaks, Pa. just across the Delaware line. The animal became enraged over a red sweater worn by the victim and attacked her. Miss Emma Longbothan, aged 15 years, niece of the woman, who was with her, cried for help and after the animal had continued the attack for 15 minutes, it was driven off by farm hands with pitchforks and clubs.

Mrs. Helms was removed to her home in an unconscious condition. She is cut about the head and there are abrasions all over her body. It is feared she also is hurt internally.

The victim was talking with her niece in an open field and did not notice the approach of the animal.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL.

Witnesses Testify That Party in Auto Which Killed Women Were Drunk.

The jury in the inquest held yesterday at the morgue of the District of Columbia by Coroner J. Ramsay Nevitt into the circumstances that caused the death of Miss Alberta G. Helm, a graduate nurse of the Gallinger Hospital for Tuberculosis, who was killed by an automobile Sunday night near the Piney Branch road bridge, on Sixteenth street, held, without bail, for the action of the grand jury, the chauffeur and the four passengers in the car which was wrecked a few minutes after Miss Helm had been killed and within a few yards of the place of her death.

Those held were Robert L. Fearson, 22 years old, 1005 Fourth street southeast, the chauffeur; William H. Tayman, 22 years old, a clerk, 537 Fifth street southeast; William C. Kelley, 25 years old, a painter, 813 E street southeast; John L. Callan, 22 years old, a tinner, 108 Eighth street northeast, and James C. Watson, 24 years old, an elevator operator, 218 Kentucky avenue southeast. The prisoners are in the District jail.

Testimony was given at the inquest to show that the men in the car were under the influence of intoxicants, and that the auto was being driven at high speed in violation of law.

Three policemen from the Tenth precinct, who assisted in arresting the five men, testified that all five were intoxicated.

It was testified that after a car had killed Miss Helm, it was not stopped to ascertain what damage had been done.

Dr. Charles B. Mack, the intern of the hospital, who was Miss Helms escort at the time she was run down, testified that the auto which struck the girl was running 50 miles an hour, and was being steered recklessly when it struck her.

DEATH OF MRS. FUGITT.

GERMANS LAUNCH NEW OFFENSIVE

Using Floating Fire Rafts in Attempts to Destroy Ossowetz

ARE HURLING BOMBS

Russians Capture All Main Chains of Mountains After Eighty Days Fighting in Mid-Winter.

Petrograd, April 13—The Germans have launched a new offensive movement in Poland, from Suwalki southward to the Vistula, according to a semi-official statement from the office today.

They have resumed the bombardment of Ossowetz abandoned nearly a fortnight ago, and are making infantry attacks against the Russian positions elsewhere.

In their new attempt against Ossowetz fortress, the Kaiser's troops are combining ancient and modern methods of warfare. Their aviators are hurling bombs by daylight while heavy siege guns smash away at the outer forts. By night the enemy is attempting to fire the city of Ossowetz by the use of incendiary bombs and floating fire rafts.

Four of these fire rafts were sent down the Biebriza river late at night following an all day bombardment in which one of the German batteries was silenced by the fortress guns. The swollen waters of the Biebriza carried the flaming piles down upon the city at the rate of nearly eight miles an hour. Simultaneously the German guns opened upon Ossowetz, shells screaming across the river and exploding near the region where the Biebriza penetrated the heart of the city.

Volunteer fire corps were sent up the river in motor boats. Before they arrived the fortress guns got the range of the flaming rafts and sent them to the bottom.

London, April 13—With the capture by the Russians of almost all the main chain of mountains, the battle of the Carpathians, which has lasted upwards of eighty days, is apparently reaching a termination over the extensive front and the Russians are said to be moving at various points, by railways and roads along southern slopes toward the plains of Hungary.

This movement, if it continues successfully, will, in the view of the Russian military authorities, compel the retirement, with little or no fighting, of the Austrians and Germans still north of the Carpathians, to the east of Uzsok Pass and in Eastern Galicia and Bukowina.

The battle, which has been thus successfully conducted by the Russians, was from all accounts, one of the fiercest of the war, and the manner in which the Russians overcame the difficulties of mountain fighting in midwinter has been the subject of praise by those acquainted with the country traversed.

The Alexandria Sporting Association is arranging for a carnival to be held from April 26th to May 1st. They have made a contract with the Otis L. Adams Shows to furnish the attractions. This company will be remembered for their excellent Italian band which they brought with them when they showed in Alexandria last season.

HELD FOR VIRGINIA MURDER.

Man Arrested in Pennsylvania Eluded Police for Months.

Doylestown, Pa., April 13.—After eluding the police of four states since early last summer, when, it is alleged, he killed the man who assaulted his sister, Taylor Coonesbury was captured yesterday in Ivyland and is being held to await requisition to Fauquier county, Virginia, where the murder was committed.

Coonesbury and the dead man are said to have gone to a picnic, where the fight started. Coonesbury says he was struck first with a brick. In his flight from Virginia Coonesbury visited Baltimore, Harrisburg and several cities in New Jersey. His capture in Ivyland resulted from a letter which he sent to his mother.

CAPTURE AMERICAN SHIP

English Officials Believe Cargoes Intended for Germany

London April 13—England's blockade of Germany netted two American victims yesterday. The steamers Joseph W. Forney and Navajo were captured by British cruisers and taken into Kirkwall, Scotland.

The Fordney was bound from New York to Malmo, Sweden, and the Navajo from Galveston to Bremen.

The steamer Fordney, 2,408 tons, commanded by Capt. Smith, sailed from New York on March 20. While her cargo was consigned to a Swedish port, English officials believe that its ultimate destination was Germany. The steamer is owned by the Merida Steamship Company, and its port of registery is Cleveland.

The Navajo sailed from Galveston March 3, she is of 1,711 tons, and commanded by Capt. Jacobsen. She is owned by the Western Steam Navigation Company, and her port of registery is San Francisco.

Prize crews have been placed on both the Fordney and Navajo and they will have to go before a prize court. Their captains communicated with the owners today and steps have been taken looking to action by the American Embassy.

ELECTORAL BOARD AND PRIMARIES

Attorney General Pollard Makes Ruling on New State Law

PREPARES ABSTRACT

Secretary of Commonwealth Will Shortly Issue Summary of Opinion as to Various Phases.

Richmond, April 13—Secretary of the Commonwealth B. O. James yesterday received from Attorney-General John Garland Pollard a summary of the opinions rendered by the Attorney-General on the new primary law.

Mr Pollard's opinions, which cover seven typewritten pages apply only to such provisions of the law as have been presented to him, from time to time, by election officers and prospective candidates with a request for his interpretation. It was desired by the Secretary of the Commonwealth for the information of members of electoral boards, party committees and city and county officers. The summary will be printed and copies sent to all officers and citizens requesting them.

New questions are constantly arising, and later opinions will be rendered touching provisions of the law by the Attorney-General. Following is the text of the latest ruling of the Attorney-General on this question.:

"The electoral board of Campbell County has to-day called on the Attorney-General for a construction of that clause in the new primary law which provides that the electoral law board shall appoint the judge of election upon application of the duly constituted authorities of the party. This new provision of the law was the cause of considerable debate in the General Assembly.

"Some insisted that the judge of the primary elections continue to be appointed by the party committees, others contended that inasmuch as the General Assembly had legalized the primaries that the judges who conducted the election ought to be appointed under the authorities of the law by the regular electoral boards who appointed the officers to conduct general elections. As a result of the debate on this subject the General Assembly placed the appointment of the judges in the hands of the electoral board.

The question now arises whether the language of the new section of the law requires the electoral board to appoint the judges named by the party committees. The Attorney-General rules that the electoral board is free to appoint any judges of a election it may desire, and that the party committees have no functions to perform in relation thereto.

"That the language of the statute simply means that whenever the party authorities have decided to have a primary election they shall call upon the electoral board to appoint the judges to conduct the election, and that the statute does not mean that the judges of election must be nominated by the party committees."

A CARD

Having been informed that some of the ladies of the Co-Operative Charities Association have taken exception to remarks reported to have been made by me at a recent meeting of the City Council. I beg to assure the ladies that I had not them in mind and my remarks were directed to a committee, whose action I did not think at the time was conductive to the best interest of the city. Since that time I have been better posted and wish to withdraw anything I may have said which could be construed as objectionable to any of the parties concerned.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

Mrs .Elizabeth Kane Passes Away in Washington at Advanced Age.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kane, who in bygone years was a resident of Alexandria, died in Washington yesterday aged 87 years. Her remains were brought to this city this morning and her funeral took place from R. Wheatley's undertaking chapel at 12:30 this afternoon. Rev. Edgar Carpenter officiating.

The deceased was the widow of William Kane, who prior to 1870, when the police force of this city was organized, was one of the four constables who officiated during the day.

Mrs. Kane is survived by a son, William, and two grandsons, R. A and S. G. Kane, of Richmond.

ANOTHER EYESORE.

About a week ago a corresponden of the Gazette called attention to a wooden shack which had stood near Spring Park station on upper King street, for some time and became an eyesore to passersby. The owner of the structure removed it in less than forty-eight hours.

The only charge against this house was its unsightliness. The correspondent, had he crossed the street, could have found something not only unsightly, but disgusting and dangerous, in the shape of a pool of water, which is always in the green slimy and green state, which should have been eliminated when the new roadway and sidewalks were constructed sometime ago. This dangerous nuisance is on the east side of Hooff's Run, partly screened by bill boards. The annual crusade against flies will soon be on, and one of the first acts of the street department should be the filling up of this menace to health. Heretofore it would have brought about a legal tangle to decide Alexandria county or Fairfax county responsible for the maintainance of this nuisance, as it was beyond the city limits up to the first instant. It is now under the jurisdiction of the city of Alexandria.

Told That There Was No Cure For Him

"After suffering for over twenty years with indigestion and having some of the best doctors here tell me there was no cure for me, I think it only right to tell you for the sake of other sufferers as well as your own satisfaction that a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets not only relieved me but cured me within two months although I am a man of 65 years," writes Jul. Grobien, Houston, Texas. Obtainable everywhere.

SEMINARY HILL NOTES

Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, D. D., to Deliver Reinicker Lecture This Week.

The Easter suspension of lectures found a large part of the student body absent for a shortholiday from Thursday in Holy Week until Easter Tuesday morning, while the High School boys were absent for about ten days on their accustomed holiday which has been established for some years past,

Dr. Crawford, the dean of the Seminary, arrived with his family from a visit to his brother, the rector of the Episcopal Church at Biloxi, Miss., after a month's absence from the Seminary in good health and spirits. He told his friends that he enjoyed his trip very much, although at times the temperature was about as low as it was here. He occupied the pulpit of the Seminary Chapel on Easter Day. The chapel was beautifully decorated with palms and Easter flowers.

All the professors were absent from the Seminary on Easter Sunday with the exception of Dr. Crawford, Professor Kennedy was at St. James' Church, Richmond, on Easter Day, Professor Bell at Wilmington, Delaware, Professor Rollins at Cherrydale, Alexandria County, and Professor Wallis at old Pohick Church, where he baptized eleven persons at the Easter morning service.

Professor Rollins went to St. Jaems' Church, Richmond, for services last Sunday, and Dr. Wallis took the services at St. Stephens' Church, Culpeper, for the rector. The Rev. Kensey J. Hammond, who was absent in Wilmington, Del., at the opening services of Immanuel Church, his old parish, now occupied by the Rev. W. H. Laird, a grandson of the late Dr. Packard, of the Seminary.

The Reinicker lectures will be delivered by the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, D. D., of Holy Trinity Church Philadelphia, Pa, this week. They commenced this evening at half-past four o'clock. The second lecture will be delivered at the same hour tomorrow, and the third and last at 12 o'clock noon on Thursday next. The subject will be The Pastorial Office. Dr. Tomkins is one of the most prominent clergymen of the Episcopal Church, and his lectures will be most interesting and profitable.

ARREST OF ALLEGED ROBBER.

Accused of Having Held up Three Men in a Roanoke (Va.) Hotel.

Suffering from an unattended wound, inflicted by a .38-caliber revolver, Walter Bagley, alias Ward Bagby, 23, was arrested in a lodging house in Pennsylvania avenue Washington, last night. He is charged with being a fugitive from justice and is held for Roanoke (Va.) authorities, who want him on a charge of robbing three men Saturday of articles valued at $800.

Bagley was treated at Emergency Hospital. He confessed to being a drug fiend, injection marks covering his upper body and "dope" paraphernalia being taken from him.

Saturday night, in Roanoke, Va., a man entered a hotel, went to the room of a guest entertaining two friends and held them up. He locked the men in a closet, but as he fled down the hall, the guest broke out and followed, firing his revolver. Other guests of the hostelry gave pursuit, but the robber escaped. A bloody hat was picked up from the front entrance.

When arrested Bagley limped from a serious bullet wound in his hip. It had received no medical attention and complications had set in. He denied the charges of robbery.

WILL MAKE PILGRIMAGE

Acca Temple, Mystic Shrine, Will Leave Richmond for Alexandria Next Saturday.

Headed by their famous Arab patrol of 100 uniformed zouaves and their recently organized band of 30 pieces, Acca Temple of the Mystic Shrine, will make a pilgrimage from Richmond to Alexandria next Saturday and conduct a class of initiates over the "hot sands." The Richmond shriners will bring with them a carload of pharaphernalia and scenery to be used in the ceremonial session.

The special train which will bring the nobles of Acca will leave Richmond at 11 o'clock and will arrive at Alexandria at 2:30 p. m. Automobiles will be used by the local members in conveying the visitors to the headquarters at the Elks' Home.

The first event of the official program will be a visit to Hon Thomas A. Fisher, Mayor of Alexandria, a member of Acca Temple. Mayor Fisher will present to the visiting nobles the keys of Alexandria and his speech of presentation will be responded to by Illustrious Potentate Jones, of Richmond. At 4 p. m. a sight seeing trip has been arranged for and at 5 o'clock there will be an exhibition drill by the patrol and band concert. At 7 o'clock the traditional banquet will be held in the Elks' Auditorium and at 8 o'clock the ceremonial session will commence. At midnight the visitors will board their special Pulmans for home.

The local committees of arrangement is composed of E. E. Downham, chairman; J. William May, Thomas A Fisher, T. B. Cochran, A. A. Paul, F. A. Bayliss, W. B. Davis, R. H. Cox J. Johnson Green, R. F. TRUE CONDITIONS OF GERMANY.

It is has been suspected for some time that the true conditions existing in Germany and Austria are hidden from the world, and that the statements sent out by officials to the effect that the two counries have an abundance of everything needful to last for years should be taken cum grano salis. Now and then glimpses of the inside life of Germany and Prusia appear on the screen which show that there is trouble in those countries such as in encountered everywhere during wars.

Mrs. Joseph Ludolph who came to America from Switzerland several years ago, has received a letter from her sister in Reitlinger. Wurttemberg, Germany, written March 1. It gives an insight into the real suffering in the home life of Germany, due to the European war, and indicates that the German people are tired of the struggle.

The letter tells of the high price of foodstuffs, and relates how bread is weighed out to families. The letter declares that the loss of men is awful to contemplate, and says property cannot be sold at all. The woman writes that she lives where she can hear the guns in the battles that are being fought in Alsace.

About the time the letter was written, the writer continued, the people had been called to meet in the churches and the pastors had read proclamations stating that their district would be required to furnish 2,000 more soldiers. As a result of the proclamations the letter told of sorrow and weeping among the women who had to send husbands brothers and sons to the war. The tone of the letter indicates wide-spread dissatisfaction with war and a yearning for peace.

The bakeries at Trieste are being forced to close their doors because they cannot obtain supplies of flour. Wheat flour the bakers have left from their own supplies has greatly deteriorated because of excessive dampness. Furthermore, the supply of corn meal is exhausted, and the lower classes are now being forced to go without bread.

The supply of beef is also very low, owing to the fact that the military authorities have requisitioned all available oxen, and there is practically no milk to be had. Infant mortality in consequently increasing at an alarming rate and the citizens are becoming very indignant over the Government's neglect of their welfare.

The charitable institutions are practically without any more funds, and free soup kitchens and bread depots, which have been maintained up to a short time ago, have had to be discontinued.

A famine is seriously threatening the populace and the situation is apparently without remedy. The authorities are encouraging all people who can leave the city and many well to do citizens are going to Italy.

FAILED TO HONOR CLAY.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch of today says:

"For many years preceding the War Between the States and for a period following the war Henry Clay's birthday was observed in Richmond and many other cities of Virginia with a public demonstration. It was the custom to hold a citzens' mass-meeting in the Capitol Square, and all the military campanies of the city participated in a dress parade, which was reviewed by the Governor and his staff. Henry Clay was the greatest orator of his day, and probably the greatest statesman ever defeated for the presidency of the United States. He was born near Richmond, in Hanover, April 12, 1777."

While passing a bookstore in Washington recently we stopped and studied alone what should be an interesting picture to every American, especially Virginians. It represented Henry Clay delivering a speech in the United States Senate. His fellow-Senators had gathered close about him and the countenances of all showed they were following him with the closest attention. While gazing upon the print and musing upon scenes in the highest legislative body in by-gone years, it was apparent that the present generation manifests but little interest in the galaxy of the great who labored to mould the United States into its present proportions. In fact, it would be safe to say that but few of the passersby on the crowded street could have explained the picture.

DEATH OF MRS. GAGE

Deceased Was Granddaughter of Late Francis L. Smith of This City.

Mrs. Massie Strong Gage, wife of Lieu. Col. Moreton F. Gage, of the British army, died at Lakewood, N. J., last night. She was the daughter of Mrs. William E. Strong, of New York City, formerly Miss Alice C. Smith, who was the daughter of the late Francis Les Smith and Sarah G. Smith, of 510 Wolfe street, this city.

Col. Gage was the military attache of the British Legation at Washington, D. C. at the breaking out of the present war. At his request, he was transferred to active service, and is now at the front in France with the second English cavalry division.

INDIANA ELECTION FRAUD

Four Sentenced to Term in Penitentiary—Will Appeal

Indianapolis, Ind., April 13.—Four men convicted of the Terre Haute election fraud tried and sentenced by Judge Anderson yesterday to the Federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kans., received their commitment papers late in the day, and were given until Sunday to begin the trip to prison. The sixteen others, including Mayor Donn M. Roberts, who received prison sentences and appealed, and the 87 who were given sentences ranging from one day to six months in the local jail, are in jail here. It was said the sixteen will be given two or three days to obtain their appeal bonds which were fixed at $10,000 for each year they were sentenced.

To obtain liberty pending his appeal, Mayor Roberts, who was sentenced to prison for six years and to pay a fine of $2,000, will have to furnish a bond of $60,000 Edward Holler, a former policeman, who pleaded guilty also received a prison sentence.

The four sentenced, who withdrew from the appeal, are John M. Masselink, city sealer; Arthur Gillis, Progressive election official; Joseph Strauss, liquor salesman and George Govern. Each had been sentenced to a year and a day in prison and to pay a fine of $100. They departed for Terre Haute tonight and will remain there until they leave for Leavenworth unaccompanied by guards.

In passing sentence, Judge Anderson frequently paused to comment on the evidence and the conditions in Terre Haute. While considering the case of a number of saloon keepers who had pleaded guilty, he said:

"My notion is that the saloon will have to go. I believe the time will come when the people will rise up and smash the saloon at least as we have it now. The evidence in this case showed that the saloons were the centers of nearly all the corruption in the election at Terre Haute."

ATTEMPT TO OUST MANAGER.

Injunction Sought Against R. M. Smythe, of Harrisonburg News Record.

Staunton, Va., April 13.—Attorney's representing certain directors and stockholders of the Harrisonburg News-Record appeared before Judge Henry W. Holt, in Circuit Court here Saturday and asked that an injunction be issued restraining R. B. Smythe from serving further as business manager of that newspaper. Charges of a serious nature are contained in the lengthy affidavits read in court, chief of which is the accusation that Smythe has failed to account for funds in the sum of $11,000. This charge is based on the report made recently by Accountant Boudar, of Richmond, who examined the books of the consolidated newspaper. It is also alleged against Smythe that he retained the services as editor of W. J. Showalter, of Washington, against the wishes of the directors.

The movement to oust Smythe from the business managership of the News-Record is made by George B. Keezell and his associates in the Record Company, Smythe before the consolidation having been connected with the News Company. While the two papers were consolidated, and now appear under the hypenated name, the companies never were merged, each retaining its entirety.

Judge Holt heard arguments in the case, and the hearing will be continued.

FOUR FIRES IN SUCCESSION.

Clinchport, Va., Believed Victim of Incendiaries.

Bristol, Va.-Tenn., April 13.—What is believed to be a series of incendiary blazes has taken place in the Clinchport community of Scott county, Virginia. Four houses, including three residences and a mill, have been destroyed. It is said two women, charged with conducting an objectionable house, were sent to jail at Gate City. The house they occupied was burned, folowed by three other fires. The impression is that persons friendly to the women sought revenge for the burning of the house house where the women lived.

Japan's Demands on China Causing A Serious Situation

Washington, April 13—Several prominent American missionaries have cabled from Peking to the government here regarding the recent demands made upon China by Japan. They are said to have said that while they had no wish to interfere in diplomatic affairs they thought it was their duty to call the attention of Unied States officials to the gravity of the situation arising out of the Japanese demands.

The signers of the message included Charles A. Hubbard, W. P Martin former president of the imperial University; Chauncey Goodrich, H. H. Lowry, president of the Peking University; John Wherry and Edward W. Thwing.

FOR SALE

A Fine Business Opportunity For Quick Investor

On account of the death of Robert L. Monroe, junior member of the firm of Garrett and Monroe, wholesale groceries of this city, it has been decided to close out the business, and the entire stock of groceries and liquors, as a whole or in part, including the old and reliable good will is now offered for sale. This old established firm has been conducting a profitable business at 411 Cameron St. this city, during the past 25 years. They succeeded the firm of Kelly and Carr who conducted the same line of business at this stand years prior to selling out to Garrett and Monroe. This old established house is well known throughout the counties of northern Virginia and its many years of successful business should be a guarantee for a safe investment. VIADUCT FOR LYNCHBURG.

Will Cost $200,000 And Cross Three Railroads.

Lynchburg, Va., April 13.—A count made here some time ago by the Norfolk and Western Railway in an effort to ascertain if there was need for a viaduct over the three railways here disclosed the fact that three grade crossings averaged 8,181 pedestrians and 2,817 vehicles daily. This count induced the railways to agree to building the proposed bridge, the city to contribute $50,000 and furnish the approaches.

The viaduct will cost upward of $200,000, will be 1,800 feet long and will eliminate two crossings on the Southern, two on the Norfolk and Western, and one on the Chesapeake and Ohio.

KILLS SON AND HIMSELF.

West Virginia Farmer Said in Note 15 Others Were to Die.

Parkersburg, W. Va., April 13.—Henry Allen, 55 years old, a farmer of Jackson county, nine miles from Ravenswood, Sunday night shot and killed his son Finley, 5 years old, and then ended his own life with the same revolver. The tragedy was discovered yesterday morning by other members of the family. A coroner's jury found that Allen was mentally unbalanced.

A note written by the dead man was found which, in a rambling manner, tol dof 15 others in the neighborhood who were condemned to die at his hand and said he had worried over this command. Allen and his wife had not lived together for two years.

HUNGARY NOT WEARY.

But Count Andrassy Predicts There Will Soon be Peace.

Vienna, April 13.—Writing in the Zeit, Count Julius Andrassy, a former Hungarian premier, says the recent reports of war weariness in Hungary are just as unfounded today as they were months ago.

During his visits to Austria Count Andrassy says he found the same determination to prosecute the war until a lasting peace is guaranteed. Nevertheless the writer expressed the belief that peace will not long be deferred.

"Events in the war," Count Andrassy says, "now follow one another more quickly and the central powers will attain the object they have in view sooner than their enemies believe."

AMERICAN SHIP ON ROCK

Steamer Minnesota Ripped Open Near Japan

Kobe, Japan, April 13.—The American steamer Minnesota, plying between Japanese ports and Seattle, struck a rock at 9:30 o'clock Sunday night off Iwajima near the southwestern entrance to the Inland Sea.

In a wireless message Captain Garlick has asked for a salvage steamer. He says all the passengers and crew are safe.

The Minnesota sailed from Nagasaki Sunday morning, bound for Kobe, Yokohama and Seattle. She passed through the Straits of Shimonoseki safely and was in the Inland Sea when the accident occurred.

It is believed the Minnesota can be floated, but beyond the fact that one of her holds was pierced by the rock, the amount of damage is not known.

FIVE OFFICERS KILLED.

Gay Company in Brussels Hotel Engage in Fight

Paris, April 13.—The Figaro prints details of the alleged scandal among officers in one of the big hotels of Brussels. Although the name of the hotel is not mentioned, it is known to be the Palace Hotel, which once was the German headquarters, but has now been barred to officers by the military governor of Brussels.

After a night spent in the hotel in gay company, the Figaro says a German general missed some important secret documents, whereupon several subordinate officers committed suicide. Shortly afterward, following a drinking orgy in the hotel Hanoverians, Bavarians, Saxons and Prussians began quarreling about slashes, supposedly from dueling on the faces of some of the officers, the Bavarians insinuating that barbers were not unacquainted with the scars which ornamented the Prussians.

Glasses flew about and finally the officers fought with sabers and revolvers. According to the evidence of reliable residents 5 of the officers were killed.

KILLED IN ACCIDENT.

Automobile Turns Over on Miami-Quebec Road.

Richmond, April 13.—Richard C. Wells, a farmer of near Union Level, Mecklenburg County, Va., who, with Warner Clarke, of that place, was brought to the Memorial Hospital Sunday morning in an unconscious condition as the result of an automobile accident a mile and a half west of Bakersville, died shortly after being taken into the institution. He did not regain consciousness. Mr. Clarke is in a critical condition and is not expected to live.

The fatal accident occurred on the Miami-Quebec highway, a short distance from Bakersville, Saturday night. Mr. Wells, his brother, Gordon Wells, and Mr. Clarke were driving down a steep incline when one of the rear wheels of the automobile gave way causing it to turn completely over.

R. C. Wells and Mr. Clarke were caught beneath it. Gordon Wells escaped unhurt.

2 DROPS OF "GET-IT" OUT COMES THE CORN!

It's the World's Wonder; Never Fails

You'll make goo-goo eyes at your feet, after you use "GET-IT," and you'll find the places where those blankety corns used to be.

"How Wide Is a 'GETS-IT' Smile? Well, a Good Deal Over 2 Feet!"

Tnere's no corn or callus among the millions of feet in the world that "GETS-IT" will not remove—there's no escape. GETS-IT is the new way, the simple, common-sense sure way. It does away with greasy ointments, salves, pads, cotton rings, harnesses, knives, scissors, razors, files, and the limping and the painful pigeon-toe walk of so many corn-pestered people. All you do is put 2 drops of GETS-IT on, the corn shrivels up, and good bye. Nothing else in the world like "GETS-IT." Millions are using it. There's no pain, no trouble, no changing shoes because of corns.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle or sent direct by E. Lawrence and Co., Chicago.

WILHELMINA CASE SETTLED.

Britain Purchased Cargo And Will Pay All Damages.

Washington, April 13.—Notification was received by the State Department yesterday of the virtual settlement without prize court proceedings of the case of the American steamer Wilhelmina, held up at Falmouth, England, while bound for Germany with a cargo of foodstuffs.

N. B. Lindheim, one of the owners of the cargo, and his counsel, former Senator Towne, of Minesota, conferred with Assistant Secretary Chandler Anderson at the department and confirmed dispatches from London announcing that the British Government had purchased the cargo and had agreed to pay all the damages and charges incidental to the delay of the cargo and prospective profits.
